1. BACKGROUND TO THE NATIONAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

The National Research Foundation (“NRF”) is a juristic person established in terms of section 2 of the National Research Foundation Act, Act 23 of 1998 and a Schedule #A Public Entity in terms of the Public Finance Management Act. . The NRF is the government’s national agency responsible for promoting and supporting research and human capital development through funding, the provision of National Research Facilities and science outreach platforms and programs to the broader community in all fields of science and technology, including natural science, engineering, social science and humanities.

The NRF building is situated in Pretoria East adjacent to the south gate of the CSIR Campus in Meiring Naude Avenue. The NRF building consists of two buildings called RISA and Corporate. The Corporate building is in the process of being build which will be completed in February 2016.

2. FULL SUPPLY DESCRIPTION

The National Research Foundation (NRF) seeks to appoint service providers to supply infrastructure equipment for the network system in the existing and new NRF office wing extension.

3. CONTEXT IN WHICH THE REQUIRED PROCUREMENT IS NEEDED/UTILISED

The network system infrastructure will enable multiple employees to share resources, centralise, allowing access to resources and instituting security. The network system also provides the mechanism to integrate all the components on a network to allow multiple users to simultaneously share the same resources regardless of physical location.

4. SELECTION AND AWARDING OF CONTRACT

This Procurement is evaluated through a two-stage process.

4.1 Stage 1 – Selection of Qualified Service Providers (from compliant and technically qualified bids received)

Procurement responses are evaluated against the Procurement Invitation specifications in accordance to evaluation criteria and the scoring set published in this Procurement Invitation as stipulated in section 5.1 and 5.2 of this Bid Invitation. Those meeting the published specifications will be evaluated in stage 2 listed below.

4.2 Stage 2 – Awarding of the Contract

The qualifying response(s) are evaluated on a fair and equal comparison basis taking into account all aspects of the proposals. The contract award criteria are:

Price – with the lowest priced Bids on an equal and fair comparison basis receiving the highest price score as set out in the Preferential Procurement Policy 2011 Regulations.

Preference – preference points as claimed in the preference claim form (SBD6.1) added to the price ranking scores and the highest combined score is nominated for the contract award.

Administration – contracts awarded where Service Providers have supplied the relevant administrative documentation, especially the Tax Clearance Certificate.

14.12.17. "Local content" means that portion of the bidding price which is not included in the imported content provided that local manufacture does take place.

14.12.18. "Manufacture" means the production of products in a factory using labour, materials, components and machinery and includes other related value-adding activities.

14.12.19. "Order" means an official written order issued for the supply of goods or works or the rendering of a service.

14.12.20. "Project site," where applicable, means the place indicated in bidding documents.

14.12.21. "Purchaser" means the organization purchasing the goods.

14.12.22. "Republic" means the Republic of South Africa.

14.12.23. "THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION" means the Special Conditions of Contract.

14.12.24. "Services" means those functional services ancillary to the supply of the goods, such as transportation and any other incidental services, such as installation, commissioning, provision of technical assistance, training, catering, gardening, security, maintenance and other such obligations of the supplier covered under the contract.

14.12.25. "Written" or "in writing" means handwritten in ink or any form of electronic or mechanical writing.

14.13. Application

14.13.1. These general conditions are applicable to all bids, contracts and orders including bids for functional and professional services, sales, hiring, letting and the granting or acquiring of rights, but excluding immovable property, unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents.

14.13.2. Where applicable, special conditions of contract are also laid down to cover specific supplies, services or works.

14.13.3. Where such special conditions of contract are in conflict with these general conditions, the special conditions shall apply.

14.14. General

14.14.1. Unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents, the purchaser shall not be liable for any expense incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid. Where applicable a non-refundable fee for documents may be charged.

14.14.2. With certain exceptions, invitations to bid are only published in the Government Tender Bulletin. The Government Tender Bulletin may be obtained directly from the Government Printer, Private Bag X85, Pretoria 0001, or accessed electronically from www.treasury.gov.za

14.15. Standards

14.15.1. The goods supplied shall conform to the standards mentioned in the bidding documents and specifications.

14.16. Use of contract documents and information; inspection

14.16.1. The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, disclose the contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the purchaser in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the supplier in the performance of the contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.

14.16.2. The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, make use of any document or information mentioned in GCC clause 16.1 except for purposes of performing the contract.

14.16.3. Any document, other than the contract itself mentioned in GCC clause 16.1 shall remain the property of the purchaser and shall be returned (all copies) to the purchaser on completion of the supplier's performance under the contract if so required by the purchaser.

14.16.4. The supplier shall permit the purchaser to inspect the supplier's records relating to the performance of the supplier and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser, if so required by the purchaser.

14.17. Patent rights

14.17.1. The supplier shall indemnify the purchaser against all third-party claims of infringement of patent, trademark, or industrial design rights arising from use of the goods or any part thereof by the purchaser.

14.18. Performance security

14.18.1. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification of contract award, the successful contractor shall furnish to the purchaser the performance security of the amount specified in the special condition of contract. Special Condition of Contract: No performance security.

14.18.2. The proceeds of the performance security shall be payable to the purchaser as compensation for any loss resulting from the supplier's failure to complete his obligations under the contract.

14.18.3. The performance security shall be denominated in the currency of the contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the purchaser and shall be in one of the following forms:

- (a) bank guarantee or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a reputable bank located in the purchaser's country or abroad, acceptable to the purchaser, in the form provided in the bidding documents or another form acceptable to the purchaser; or
- (b) a cashier's or certified cheque

14.18.4. The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in the special condition of contract. Special Condition of Contract: No performance security.

14.19. Inspections, tests and analyses

14.19.1. All pre-bidding testing will be for the account of the contractor.

14.19.2. If it is a bid condition that supplies to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage during production or execution or on completion be subject to inspection, the premises of the contractor or contractor shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the NRF or an organization acting on its behalf.

14.19.3. If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the bidding documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.

14.19.4. If the inspections, tests and analyses show the supplies to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.

14.19.5. Where the supplies or services do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such supplies or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.

14.19.6. Any contract supplies may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analyzed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected supplies shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with supplies which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal the rejected supplies shall be returned at the suppliers cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute supplies forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected supplies, purchase such supplies as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.

14.20. Packing

14.20.1. The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.

14.21. Insurance

14.21.1. The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified in the THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION.

14.22. Transportation

14.22.1. Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified in the THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION.

14.23. Incidental services

14.23.1. The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following services, including additional services, if any, specified in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION:

- (a) performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;
- (b) furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods;
- (c) furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;
- (d) performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period of time agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and
- (e) training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.

14.23.2. Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

14.24. Spare parts

14.24.1. The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:

- (a) such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier, provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and
- (b) in the event of termination of production of the spare parts:
 - (i) Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and
 - (ii) following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested.

14.25. Warranty

14.25.1. The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.

14.25.2. This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise.

14.25.3. The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.

14.25.4. Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.

14.25.5. If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract.

14.26. Payment

14.26.1. The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION.

14.26.2. The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.

14.26.3. Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the supplier.

14.26.4. Payment will be made in Rand unless otherwise stipulated in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION

14.27. Prices

14.27.1. Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his bid, with the exception of any price adjustments authorized in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION or in the purchaser's request for a bid validity extension, as the case may be.

14.28. Contract amendments

14.28.1. No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties concerned.

14.29. Assignment

14.29.1. The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

14.30. Subcontracts

14.30.1. The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contracts if not already specified in the bid. Such notification, in the original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

14.31. Delays in the supplier's performance

14.31.1. Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.

14.31.2. If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, it's likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.

14.31.3. No provision in a contract shall be deemed to prohibit the obtaining of supplies or services from a national department, provincial department, or a local authority.

14.31.4. The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the supplies are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.

14.31.5. Except as provided under GCC, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC Clause 32, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 31.2 without the application of penalties.

14.31.6. Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a supplies contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase supplies of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to claim damages from the supplier.

14.32. Penalties

14.32.1. Subject to GCC Clause 35, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 33.

14.33. Termination for default

14.33.1. The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:

- (a) if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 31.2;
- (b) if the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or
- (c) if the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.

14.33.2. In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods, works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

14.33.3. Where the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may decide to impose a restriction penalty on the supplier by prohibiting such supplier from doing business with the public sector for a period not exceeding 10 years.

14.33.4. If a purchaser intends imposing a restriction on a supplier or any person associated with the supplier, the supplier will be allowed a time period of not more than fourteen (14) days to provide reasons why the envisaged restriction should not be imposed. Should the supplier fail to respond within the stipulated fourteen (14) days the purchaser may regard the intended penalty as not objected against and may impose it on the supplier.

14.33.5. Any restriction imposed on any person by the Accounting Officer / Authority will, at the discretion of the Accounting Officer / Authority, also be applicable to any other enterprise or any partner, manager, director or other person who wholly or partly exercises or exercised or may exercise control over the enterprise of the first-mentioned person, and with which enterprise or person the first-mentioned person, is or was in the opinion of the Accounting Officer / Authority actively associated.

14.33.6. If a restriction is imposed, the purchaser must, within five (5) working days of such imposition, furnish the National Treasury, with the following information:

- (a) the name and address of the supplier and / or person restricted by the purchaser;
- (b) the date of commencement of the restriction
- (c) the period of restriction; and
- (d) the reasons for the restriction.

These details will be loaded in the National Treasury's central database of suppliers or persons prohibited from doing business with the public sector.

14.33.7. If a court of law convicts a person of an offence as contemplated in sections 12 or 13 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, No. 12 of 2004, the court may also rule that such person's name be endorsed on the Register for Tender Defaulters. When a person's name has been endorsed on the Register, the person will be prohibited from doing business with the public sector for a period not less than five years and not more than 10 years. The National Treasury is empowered to determine the period of restriction and each case will be dealt with on its own merits. According to section 32 of the Act the Register must be open to the public. The Register can be perused on the National Treasury website.

14.34. Anti-dumping and countervailing duties and rights

14.34.1. When, after the date of bid, provisional payments are required, or antidumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or anti-dumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the contractor to the State or the State may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which may otherwise be due to the contractor in regard to supplies or services which he delivered or rendered, or is to deliver or render in terms of the contract or any other contract or any other amount which may be due to him.

14.35. Force Majeure

14.35.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clauses 32 and 33, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that his delay in performance or other failure to perform his obligations under the contract is the result of an event of force majeure.

14.35.2. If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

14.36. Termination for insolvency

14.36.1. The purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

14.37. Settlement of disputes

14.37.1. If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.

14.37.2. If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of his intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.

14.37.3. Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.

14.37.4. Mediation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure specified in the THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION.

14.37.5. Notwithstanding any reference to mediation and/or court proceedings herein,

- (a) the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and
- (b) the purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the supplier.

14.38. Limitation of liability

14.38.1. Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to Clause 6;

- (a) the supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay penalties and/or damages to the purchaser;
- (b) the aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

14.39. Governing language

14.39.1. The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract that is exchanged by the parties shall also be written in English.

14.40. Applicable law

14.40.1. The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws, unless otherwise specified in THIS PROCUREMENT INVITATION.

14.41. Notices

14.41.1. Every written acceptance of a bid shall be posted to the supplier concerned by registered or certified mail and any other notice to him shall be posted by ordinary mail to the address furnished in his bid or to the address notified later by him in writing and such posting shall be deemed to be proper service of such notice

14.41.2. The time mentioned in the contract documents for performing any act after such aforesaid notice has been given, shall be reckoned from the date of posting of such notice.

14.42. Taxes and duties

14.42.1. A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees, and other such levies imposed outside the purchaser's country.

14.42.2. A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc., incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

14.42.3. No contract shall be concluded with any contractor whose tax matters are not in order. Prior to the award of a bid the Department must be in possession of a tax clearance certificate, submitted by the contractor. This certificate must be an original issued by the South African Revenue Services.

14.43. National Industrial Participation (NIP) Program

14.43.1. The NIP Programme administered by the Department of Trade and Industry shall be applicable to all contracts that are subject to the NIP obligation.

14.44. Prohibition of restrictive practices

14.44.1. In terms of section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, is prohibited if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if a contractor (s) is / are or a contractor(s) was / were involved in collusive bidding (or bid rigging).

14.44.2. If a contractor(s) or contractor(s), based on reasonable grounds or evidence obtained by the purchaser, has / have engaged in the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may refer the matter to the Competition Commission for investigation and possible imposition of administrative penalties as contemplated in the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998.

14.44.3. If a contractor(s) or contractor(s), has / have been found guilty by the Competition Commission of the restrictive practice referred to above, the purchaser may, in addition and without prejudice to any other remedy provided for, invalidate the bid(s) for such item(s) offered, and / or terminate the contract in whole or part, and / or restrict the contractor(s) or contractor(s) from conducting business with the public sector for a period not exceeding ten (10) years and / or claim damages from the contractor(s) or contractor(s) concerned.
