

DIRECTORATE OF RESEARCH AND INNOVATION

RESEARCH CAPACITY BUILDING WORKSHOP FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

The Directorate of Research and Innovation invites TUT staff and registered postgraduate students to attend a research capacity building workshop scheduled as follows:

TITLE: Research Ethics

Themes to be covered include:

Day 1: 18 October 2022

- Introduction to research ethics
- History related to research ethics development
- Montreal statement and Singapore statement including Cape Town statement
- Discussion principles of Research ethics
 - Benefits and harms
 - Justice
 - Veracity
 - Autonomy and confidentiality
 - Informed consent – privacy, POPIA

Day 2: 19 October 2022

- Writing ethical compliant proposal
- Tshwane University of Technology - ethics document to submit
- Proposal flow of projects from departments – till ethics approval
- Challenges related ethics approval process
- Responsible conduct of research

Presenter : Prof Tendani Ramukumba, TUT Research Ethics Committee Chairperson

Date : 18 – 19 October 2022

Time : 09:00 – 15:00

Venue : Virtual (Microsoft Teams)

RSVP : On or before Friday, 14 October 2022

Booking is essential. Students interested in attending the workshop must register by completing an online form. Click here to RSVP.

The link for the workshop will be sent to you once you have confirmed booking.

Enquiries to: ShaiLK@tut.ac.za
(012) 382 4875