

NRF Next Generation and Emerging Researchers SYMPOSIUM

The National Research Foundation (NRF) is launching the Next Generation and Emerging Researchers (NGER) Symposium on 23-25 October 2024 at Birchwood Hotel and OR Tambo Conference Centre, Boksburg, South Africa. The symposium aims to create a platform for postgraduate and emerging researchers to connect, exchange knowledge, and share innovative research projects. The symposium will align with the NRF's 2030 vision of "Research for a Better Society."

Who should apply? All those currently funded by the NRF in these categories:

- Final-year Doctoral students;
- Postdoctoral Fellows; and
- Early Career Researchers.

Submit applications (including abstracts) via NRF Connect (<https://nrfconnect.nrf.ac.za>); oral and poster presenters are welcome to participate.

Successful applicants will have all their basic expenditures, including travel and accommodation, covered.

Opening Date:

27 June 2024

Closing Date:

23 August 2024

Outcomes Date:
